THE NACKAWIC CURLING CLUB

The Curling Club, 122 Carleton Drive, Nackawic, is gearing up for the opening of the curling season. The tentative opening is scheduled for early Nov. with a weekend Community Bonspiel, open for all to try out the game. New curlers will be paired with experienced curlers. This year we are introducing a new 2 person game; Stirling Curling. It will be played in the daytime and new curlers will be paired with an experienced curler. Other leagues include an open league in which teams are formed and entered (teams are always looking for players). There will be a Mixed League (usually 2 men and 2 women), a Ladies afternoon league, and a Friday night Fun Night which is open to all community members with no membership needed. It is a drop in evening- all you need is a clean pair of inside sneakers and a desire to have a fun evening! Free instructions on playing the game as well as for Stirling Curling. Watch for more info on The Nackawic Curling Club FB page For info call: Audrey Cernivz, 506 575-2671
